

THE ROAD FROM EASTER TO PENTECOST 4

Search Me, O God

Read Psalm 139

“Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my concerns.” Psalm 139:23

It is one thing to pray for a larger house, a newer car, a different ministry assignment, or for a salary increase. It is another thing to ask the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to search our hearts and test our thoughts. The Bible reveals that God is omniscient, omnipotent, and omnipresent. In fact, He knows us better than we know ourselves. Nothing catches our Father off guard.

Health experts tell us that annual physical exams are wise and necessary. Early detection is key to physical health and personal longevity.

Spiritual health requires periodic exams, too.

Therefore, we make a decision and set a date to get away from the obligations and responsibilities to have moments of solitude with the One who can reveal the most intimate things about us. During the moments of solitude, we ask the Lord to search our hearts and attitudes.

Is Jesus still our First Love?

Are we guilty of simply going through the motions of being Christians?

Do we love the people we call brothers and sisters?

Are we flirting with temptation?

Do we house within us attitudes of humility or pride?

Our solitude and transparency with God may lead to personal revitalization. It is documented that this personal revitalization is often what God uses to revitalize a church.

How long has it been since your last spiritual examination?

My Prayer is that you consider making a decision, setting a date, securing a place, and practicing a time of solitude with God. With an open Bible and blank pieces of paper, asking God to search your heart and attitudes.
