

Holy Week Sunday

Reflections...

He is risen! The Lord is risen indeed! Death did not have the victory; Jesus did! Can you imagine the terror of seeing a blazing-white angel warrior sitting on top of the stone where He had laid (Matthew 28:2-9)? Can you picture Mary Magdalene (in John 20:11-17) clinging to Jesus' feet in desperate joy scarcely believing that He was actually alive? What about the disciples when He showed up and said to those stunned men, "Peace be with you!" (John 20:19-20). No song is celebratory enough! No painting can convey the shocking joy! It must have felt like Heaven on earth!

And it was! Heaven is what we have just a tiny taste of while we are still on this earth until we are fully in His presence. His resurrection is the promise of ours one day, too. He is risen and so shall we be!

Hallelujah!

Let us Pray...
