

THE ROAD FROM EASTER TO PENTECOST 5

A World Full of Needs

“Are you willing to serve unnoticed?”

Vincentino was a church member with and on a mission. He dedicated his time serving people in his community and his local church, deliberately seeing about the needs of others. Serving meant taking time away from his home, his family and life comforts. However, he noticed how others were too busy fixing their own life issues rather than serving others. That is why he decided to be a conduit for others to help restore them to Christ.

Our job as believers is to serve the needs of others, since God created us for His purpose. Then, He sets us loose in a world full of needs. It is not superhero stuff, so do not pass by someone in need or a task that needs doing, holding out for a more glamorous purpose in the Kingdom.

If it is God you are seeking to serve it does not matter if people notice what you are doing. For in eternity you will hear: “Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things...Come and share your master’s happiness!” Matthew 25:21 New International Version (NIV)

Prayer: Heavenly Father, help us to put aside our selfish desires and vain ambition. Teach us to be true servants in both word and deed. In Jesus name, Amen.
